

5.2 Review Sheet & Question Prep

---

REVIEW VOCABULARY

Copyright

Copyright is a law protecting the original works of a creator from anyone wishing to use those works without permission.

Domain Name

This is the main part of a complete domain. (for example: milweewebdesign, google, youtube)

External Link

Any link that leaves the current site and goes to another site is called external.

Fair Use

While copyright is a law protecting the original works of a creator from someone misusing those works without permission, Fair Use is a law that allows "fair use" of those original works without permission. Any use must be reasonable, but that makes the law hard to enforce online.

HTTP

Hyper Text Transfer Protocol is what pulls Hypertext pages (aka, HTML) to the browser.

Image Formats or Extensions

GIF supports animation, PNG supports transparency, JPG is the most common

Top Level Domains

These are also known as Domain Suffixes because they show up at the end of a complete domain name and help to state what category of site the domain belongs (for example: .edu, .com, etc)

W3C

World Wide Web Consortium (W3C) is an international group of Internet experts who set standards for the World Wide Web, including the proper syntax/format of HTML/CSS/JS, etc.

W3Schools

This is an informational website (w3schools.com) with tutorials on HTML/CSS/JS, etc.
